Armilla M Unangst

May 2, 2012

Sussex - Armilla "Toots" M. (Brophy) Unangst, age 90, passed away on Wednesday, May 2, 2012 at Andover Subacute and Rehabilitation Center. Born on September 17, 1921 in Oxford, New Jersey, Armilla married Donald Unangst and lived in Sussex her whole life. She worked in the Lawrence School cafeteria as head cook for many years and was proud of her job and treated the kitchen as if it was her own. Armilla especially loved working with the little children. She talked about her job and missed it very much all throughout her retirement. She was predeceased by her husband, Donald in 1994 and her son-in-law, Frank Pierce in 1993. Armilla is survived by her daughter, Priscilla Pierce of Greenville, NY; her son, Donald Unangst, Jr. and his wife Debra of Wantage; two grandsons, Donald Unangst, III and his wife Christine of Hillsborough and Christopher Unangst and his wife Meng of Montague; her granddaughter, Allison (Pierce) Straub and her husband Jadadiah of Greenville, NY; and her two great grandsons, Philip and Trevor. She loved and lived for her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She always put herself last and her family first. "Toots" will be deeply missed. Private cremation services were held and a private memorial will take place at the convenience of the family. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. Online condolences may be offered to the family at www.PinkelFuneralHome.com
