“ Anita lived 2 doors away from me here in Summer Hill and she always came around to check on her first floor neighbors or call them to make sure they were o.k. She was a special lady and I will miss her a lot.

“ Anita was our cousin, third cousin actually but our lives were much more intertwined than that relationship would imply. She was more like our parents first daughter and the 4 Marsilio girls and she grew up and then old together. She was the big sister with the handsome boy friend, ( that would be Walter! ), who would take us roller skating and out for hot dogs. She let us be her sidekicks and it was fun and exciting and a little glamorous to our young eyes. Two of us were Bridesmaids and our Mother her Matron Of Honor. Her wedding to Walter was a big and happy event in our childhoods.

Our Mother, Catherine, and Anita had a very close and special relationship. In Catherine's great old age Anita helped us care for her, calling everyday and stepping in when we could not be there.

Anita shared our joys and our sorrows and we her's. She was a loving, caring, constant presence in our lives. Her passing has left a hole in our universe that can never be filled.

Dear Anita, you are truly loved. You will be deeply missed and will always be in our hearts.

" May flights of angels sing thee to thy rest "
