“ Joey D'Amato great guy from a wonderful family loved them all! Swimming after hours off raft in Lake Neepaulin, walking up that big ass hill to our house. His Mom, Vera, the kindest woman, and boy did she make great English Muffin pizzas! His sister Camille, wonderful human and friend. Memories of one terrific family, they're all together now. Best neighbors in the world. RIP Joey so sorry to his boys and Peter, to the whole family.

“ Joe was a really good friend of our family. He was the best man at our wedding and Godfather to Tom Jr. He was there for all family celebrations and good times. Gone too soon. He will always be in our thoughts and prayers as will his beloved family.
