SENTIMENTS FROM THE FAMILY.....

It's been said "You can tell a lot about a man from his hands."

Robert G. Baumgartner once again took the hand of his beloved wife Lois, "Chloe" just before 10:30 on Friday morning. "The Man with the Huge Hands" was a long-time resident of Haledon, NJ. With the rest of his fellow servicemen in the US Navy Seabees, his hands strengthened as they constructed airfields and bases in the Pacific Theatre of World War 2, a nd later in the Korean War. His hands grew coarse and callused as he built his family's home on Mason Ave in Haledon, the same home where "Big Bob" and "Chloe" would start their family. His hands would gain their scars and wear in the 35 plus years in the garages of the Inter-City Bus Company (TNJ) of Paterson, NJ, as well as fighting fires as Fire Chief of the Haledon Fire Department. Sometimes a stern reminder of proper behavior, Bob's hands raised two boys into upstanding men; one with the healing hands of a physical therapist, Bob, the other with hands that would four times earn Olympic wrestling medals, Bruce. The stability of his hands would help countless children learn to safely handle firearms as a certified NRA instructor. Their steadiness was vital as a member of the Haledon Model Railroad Club, and the family's fervent photographer. His hands would provide security and comfort on the countless cruises he and his wife took in their retirement. His monstrous handshakes were well known in the VFW and American Legion Halls and Masonic Lodges throughout much of North Jersey. In the last years of his life, those gigantic hands with all their character would turn soft as pillows as they welcomed five great-grandchildren. In the end, the only thing with more character, warmth, softness, caring, and expanse than his two hands, was his heart. Love ya big...

“ Bob and Bruce , I am sorry I missed the service yesterday but I found out too late. Your dad was a great man I have so many memories of him and your mom supporting us at football games and wrestling matches. They were always so eager to make me feel welcome wether it was at your home or where we spent so many hours, in a gym . Rest assured that they are in a better place now and for eternity. Another chapter of life has closed and a new page has been turned. May he Rest In Peace
Sincerely Bill Hemstead

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Bob was loved by everyone who met him. I'll never forget how much he enjoyed Thanksgiving at our home a few years ago. It made me so happy to see him have a good time. He truly enjoyed his family and you could feel the love he felt for all of you. His smile said it all.
He will always be that angel watching over you and yours and I hope you take comfort knowing that.
Love to you all.

“ To The Baumgartner Family,

The Dash Poem by Linda Ellis

I read of a a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on the tombstone
From the beginning to the end.

He noted that first came the date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between the years.

For it matters not, how much we own,
The cars...the house...the cash
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.

So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left
That can still be rearranged.

If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect
And more often wear a smile
Remembering this special dash
Might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy is being read
With life's actions to rehash....
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your DASH?

Mr. B. definitely can be proud of his dash. He lived for his family and practiced the golden rule at all times. He was such a kind man and was always smiling. He will be missed by all who knew him. I hope he and Mrs. B. are on a heavenly cruise right now eating gallons of ice cream. Love.... Debbie and Guy Johnstone

“ Dear Bob and Bruce,

In reading the newspaper, I found out that your Dad had passed away. I feel a real loss in his passing and want to extend my sympathy to you and your families. I will not be able to pay my respects in person, so I hope this small message sends my heartfelt thoughts.

I will always remember your Dad as an honest and cheerful person. A leader in the Borough of Haledon, NJ., and a dear friend of my late father-in-law, Tony DeFabio.

Our families the Pengitore's and DeFabio's were privileged to know him.

His work with the Haledon Fire Department, the Haledon PAL and various boards that I appointed him to made our borough strong and vibrant.

He was a giant among giants. We will miss him.

I want you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

God Bless.

“ I have many fine memories of my Uncle Bob. He was a towering Teddy Bear of a man with a broad smile and warm hug for all. He had a fondness for model trains and took pride in his huge collection which he shared with me every time we visited. One would be hard pressed to find a kinder family man then my beloved Uncle Bob. Condolences to Cousins Bruce and Robby, and to the entire family. Love, Jane Jenner-Mckeon
