“ Yo Tom and his family: My sister, Janet Quintal, called me and told me of Adele's death. I am so very sorry. Although we hadn't been in touch for many years, I have been fond of Adele since our childhood. I have very good memories of Adele and her parents coming down to our house at the Shore in the summer and having a meal with us at the table under the apple tree in our side yard. I also have a framed photo that my mother took at your house in New Jersey of me, Janet and Adele standing in a row in your kitchen next to the refrigerator. It is now in my bedroom, where I see it every day and remember that visit. I will be among the many persons who will miss her. Judy Brown
