“ Allan was an awesome first boss, and a lot of fun to work with. I remember my first job at mountain creek he would make me laugh everyday. Very driven to his craft, and very serious about it when it came down to it. I'll never forget him ”

“ My angel, your services were beautiful, so many people loved you and came to show you that love. You are on my mind and in my thoughts and in my heart and on my skin constantly. I could have written hours of words speaking about you but I know you would have hated all those words..so I wrote and spoke what I feel summed up your beautiful soul and how I know you will help guide me through this, and how I won't turn back from everything you taught me and how you raised me up and showed me how to love my self. I can never thank you enough for all you did for me, and the strength you continue to give to me now. Everything feels different now, we went from being with each other 24/ 7 for the past 6 years, not one day apart, all the while still loving being in each others presence and never tiring of one another. I feel as if I know you better than my self.. We always said we were on the same wavelength and finished one another sentences. That doesn't just stop, it will continue on and you will be here with me still. I'm so thankful for all the love you showed me throughout the years and all the life lessons and just how to be the best person I could be, over all. I love you to the moon and back.. I will keep you in the forefront of my mind forever..and I will keep our memories alive by talking about them and listening to everyone eases stories and memories of you. I've already met so many people from your past and I just adore them all and see the impact you had on them. This is NOT goodbye, there will never be goodbye, I will see you again, my sweet angel Allan. Your button love yous. <3

Alan, may you rest in peace. It gives me great solace knowing you are now a very healthy soul. You are no longer in pain or suffering from the illness. Heaven will be a brighter place when you joined in the graces of Our Heavenly Father. Kristen now has her very own Guardian Angel. When you start to miss Allan, close your eye and talk to him, the love you shared will allow you to hear his voice and feel his presence. My thoughts and prayers are with you. If you ever need someone to talk to, send me a msg and I will return it.
