“ I have fond memories of my cousin Andrew whose Dad, my Uncle Andrew, had a cottage in Lake Hopatcong & then in Ludlow Vermont in the early 50's & later on. Cousin Andrew was a rough & tumble guy who loved his horses back then & continued that life style in Sussex. He gave me rides on his horse in Vermont when my family would make frequent visits to their farm up there. Thanks Andrew, may you rest in peace.

Sweet memories Of childhood days in Vermont with our families. My parents , your parents, my sweet cousins Barbara and Nancy and Grandma Louisa and Grand pa Pinasco. Such a simple peaceful place to have fun and seeing you riding your horse and letting the others have rides. Handsome, quiet and a good guy. Rest In Peace dear cousin.
