“ I was saddened to read that Ann had died. I've not seen her since 1985. I met Ann in 1974 when I was a young boy working at the Cambridge Inn in Paramus, NJ. I was fascinated by the yacht she was constructing in her back yard. She was always very gracious to my sister Charlene and me whenever we would come from Connecticut and visit. It was always a fun time to be in Ann's company. My condolences to Bruce, Ray, and Cheryl. Your mother was a lovely lady. Sincerely, Jim Powers

“ Ann was a special woman, she was my mother's roommate at Barnihill for over a year and always kept us laughing when we visited my mother. Our vists turned into with both of them. She and my mother were like "peas in a pod". My mother passed July 20, 2013 and I know she and Ann are enjoying themselves together again- may they rest in peace.
