

Anna Permunion

October 16, 1941 - March 10, 2022

Wantage - Anna (Schwarz) Permunion, age 80, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by and feeling the love of family. Anna was born in Yugoslavia and spent the early part of her life in Magstadt, Germany where she met her husband of 56 years, Albert Permunion. Anna and Albert moved to the United States in 1966 and settled in the Glenwood section of Vernon where they raised their children. Anna will always be remembered for all the kids she babysat and the thousands of blankets she made for loved ones over the years. She will be dearly missed by her little companion, Rocky, her sun conure. Anna was predeceased by her daughter, Ramona Permunion in 1973 and her husband, Albert Permunion, who was taken from his family in 2017. She is survived by her three sons; Adrian Permunion and his wife Myrna of Glenwood, Helmut Permunion and his wife, Lisa (VanBlarcom) of Hamburg, and Frank Permunion and his wife Cathleen (Donahue); her daughter, Christine (Permunion) Riffard and her husband Tim of Glenwood; her six grandchildren who Anna's legacy will still live through, Albert, Alexis, Audrey, Sasha, Tyler, and Miguel. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Anna Permunion's memory to the Sussex Fire Department, 15 Loomis Avenue, Sussex, NJ 07461 or to Affinity Care Hospice, 140 Littleton Rd. #103, Parsippany, NJ 07054 (Affinityhealthmanagement.com). Both of these two organizations were so beneficial in ensuring that Anna received the love and care that she deserved towards the end of her life. The family gives their eternal "thanks" to both organizations and to the incredible people that touched Anna and her family's lives. Funeral services will be held at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, March 15, 2022 at Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex.
