“Ma, what can I say. Sometimes in life you just get to meet that one special person, to me, that person was Ma. She gave me a beautiful caring wife, the brothers and sisters that I never had, she was an awesome mother-in-law, and grandma to our son. Ma was always willing to help anyone, anytime. The party's, gatherings and especially Christmas dinner, all such fond memories.

Ma did live her life to the fullest, she definitely did it her way! I'm so sad, and so happy at the same time. I'm so sad Ma's gone, but so happy I had the privilege of knowing her and being part of her life for 30 years.

Just know that Ma might be gone from our sight, but she will never be gone from our hearts!!!

Godspeed Ma, until we meet again!!!!

Judy, Micheal, Linda and Ronnie, my deepest sincere condolences. Ann was a trip.. I can hear her voice calling Judy as I write this! She had the biggest smile that filled the room and always had that infectious laugh when she shook her head at Michael! Lol. She will always be in your heart and soul. Godspeed Mom....
