“ *Arty and Angie,
We have so many memories of your mom and dad. Just like you, I wish we could just wake up and the last two years would have been a dream. Your mom and dad loved you guys so very much and I know they are both looking down from heaven and will always be watching out for you. There is no denying that your dad can be seen in little Ethan's eyes. Your mom was a fighter. She never gave up 17 years ago when she first got cancer and she fought a valiant fight this time. We cannot think like God. He is like an artist and your mom and dad were prized pieces of art and He wanted them back in his collection. We are so very proud of you both and the way you took such loving care of your parents. Remember that God knows what you have gone through and will bless you. You are both very lucky to have such loving, supportive spouses and in-laws. Remember that we love you both so much and we are only a call away.
With all our love,
Aunt Margie and Uncle Kenny*

“ There are things that we don't want to happen but have to accept, things we don't want to know but have to learn, and people we can't live without but have to let go.

*Words cannot express my sorrow.
My thoughts and prayers are with you always.*

*Love,
Anetta*

“ I loved Areta more than you could realize. We would meet at a certain corner while walking to school and continue walking together. We did that for a year or two in elementary school. We remained friends from then on and lost touch for many years. I remember seeing Areta's name on my caller ID after 25 years of not seeing her. I was so excited to hear her voice and she sounded exactly the same as she did when she was a teenager. Areta and Artie were back in my life for such a short time and I am so grateful that she found me again after losing touch for so long. My sincere condolences to Angie and Arty and their families. Words cannot express how sorry I am for your loss. Both your parents were my wonderful friends and will truly be missed.

*My deepest sincere sympathy,
Karen Kistner, NC*

“ I am so sorry to hear of Areta's passing. She was friends with my sister Karen Kistner and Areta would come to our house in Kearny many times. Areta and Arty were such sweet people and I am so sad to hear they both passed at such young ages. I know they are together now and at peace. My condolences to Arty and Angelica and your families. I will forever keep Areta and Arty in my prayers.

Sincerely,
Diane Yourcheck
