“ It has been a very long time since I saw Jamie, John and Kristen. I left the area 15 years ago and due to many extenuating circumstances, lost close touch with Barbara and her family. For several years Barbara was my closest friend, she made me laugh when things seemed overwhelming. We worked together and played together. I came to see her a couple times after I moved away, but our lives had gone in different directions and the connection was no longer there. They say people come into our lives for a reason, a season or a lifetime. I think ours was for a season, but those memories will last for a lifetime. I know she was suffering as I spoke to her a couple times near the end and my heart was breaking for her and the family. She was so young and her grandson was her biggest concern. I could relate to that since I, too, am raising my 17 year old grandson. I have been praying for all of you, but especially her grandson, I believe his name was Jamie, too. Please tell him I want him to make his Grandma smile down from heaven. Make her proud. May God Bless You All and May you know He is there for you now and forever!

Love, Elaine
