“ While I do not recollect ever meeting Barbara in person, I feel I know her well by the many postings of her mother by Lisa. She has had a wonderful, happy and engaging life and is now enjoying a reunion in heaven with her beloved Paul and their daughter Debbie. I offer condolences to her entire family and pray that in this time of grief you are consoled to know you took great care of Barbara just as she took care of you in her day. May she rest in peace.

“ Barbara and I we're together on her 94 th birthday. I gifted her with a picture of her and her husband at a church picnic years ago. I remember it so clear. She was so thrilled to get a poncho and a sparkle hat from me also. She wore that hat everyday. Years ago we were like family together having many parties together. Paul was the love of her life. So handsome. He sang at many parties. It's strange. On the day she passed, not knowing, I had thoughts of her. My plans were to go back to see her and bring her another hat The day I found out was two days later.
