“ Pat, Tricia, Brian: Barney and I go way back to 1960, when he was a young teen and I was just 5. I would stay over the weekends at the Civic Square Apartments in Irvington, where he lived with his Mom. I remember well his fondness for hamsters & snakes, and BB guns (I will leave that one alone!). But seriously, I also remember other things, like his guidance in buying our first new car after Candy and I married; we had that car for 10 years and it held our kids. I also remember his sense of humor, sarcastic Irish wit, which always made me laugh. I'm very sorry for your family's loss, and I can assure you that anyone who ever met Barney will remember him with fondness. He was one of a kind! ...
