“ Every birthday Bertha would sing happy Birthday song in full over the phone. I'll miss her sage advice and grit. I'll miss her laugh the most. She is with the love of her life my Grandpa Joe. In the end she prayed to be with him every day. She is finally at rest with him and her beloved family member. I'm thankful I got to speak one last time with you. I love you and miss you.

My dear friend Bertha, Edwin & I miss you. We enjoyed so much our friendship with you & Joe over the years. We remember so many delicious meals you made & your laughter. I know you've been sad since Joe passed & longed to leave this earth to go be with him. Rest in peace, we will never forget you❤️

“ Married to my uncle Butch Tambone from Brooklyn, New York and both moved to Florida after my grandma died, (Butchies mom.) She is with him now and Angie and Sandy and their birds. I pray she will be at peace and that God will forgive her for her sins. Pls kiss my uncle as Claudia and I miss him dearly. He was the good in our family and gave her a very good life.
