“ Bryan was a wonderful, gentleman and had such a loving and supportive family. He was a blessing to have met him and to know him. I apologize for not having kept i touch. I apologize again for losing one of his footballs and if I had wronged him in any way, besides that football. My heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends of Bryan

“ Bryan was a quiet guy, but put on some mickey mouse and you can catch a smile behind his hand and maybe he would sing you a line or 2... most likely perched on his elbow and ready for his gourmet lunch packed by mom, we always told him how lucky he was, but we were the lucky ones 💖 he was a pleasure, and we will miss him terribly

“ I will always fondly refer to him as "My Bry Guy" I have so many memories of Bryan. I will always smile thinking of the ways he would of let me know he was happy. Sometimes with a cute little smile, singing a little tune, slapping his knee and prompting me to turn him see what happening in his surroundings, or on a good day, a quick pull on my arm, for a small hug, which I always cherished. We shared love for all things Disney, and enjoyed listening to MJ music. I will always feel lucky to have spent time with Bryan and blessed to meet his wonderful parents. I will always Remer him in these ways. My deepest sympathy goes out to his family. Rest in peace my friend. 💕

“ Bryan was a special guy that I grew quite fond of over the years. He was so lucky to have such a kind loving family that catered to his every desire...including so many Disney trips! I'll miss hearing him sing and also the tender and loving part of his personality. When I met him up there, I can't wait to hear all he has to say. Sending love and sympathy to his family.

“ Oh this one... had my heart at NO! But I got his with my M&Ms 😊 my heart is heavy right now. His personality was amazing when he was having a good day even better on his bad days lol. Singing was one of a kind and the best smile ever!!! Dance free my friend
