“ I'm honestly at a lost for words.....

*My heart dropped when I saw the posts that were already posted about you & I couldn't believe it. For about two years straight I saw you almost every day when I came to your house after school to hang out with Freddy. & then for the last two years dating Freddy you helped me through some pretty shitty stuff & I thank you. I'll never forget our food shopping experiences at Weis, the popcorn tin I got you every year for Christmas(even after I broke up with your brother lol), you trying to teach me how to play video games, your strange obsession you had with Jim(my dad) for some odd reason & of course all your crazy story's. I know you're at peace now & I know your pain is gone but you will be missed terribly.
R.I.P. Calvin Crowell ♥*

“ Calvin, I am truly at a loss for words. You were there when anyone needed a helping hand, a smile, a joke or even some advice. I can not express my sincere thanks for all the talks we had about back issues and all the advise you have me before surgery and texting me after to check on me. Your friendship was truly amazing and I will never forget you for that. I hope you get all the Dr. Peppers you want up there. You will be missed way beyond words could ever say. So glad that your kind heart touched so many of us at the store. Fly way up high and watch over us all with that smile! Miss ya buddy.

Rachel and Freddy, I'm so sorry for your loss of Calvin, I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers.

I hope & pray that all the wonderful memories you have with him help you find some ease through out the next couple of weeks, months, how ever long you need. If you need anything please do not hesitate to reach out. You are all in my thoughts & prayers ♥ *hugs

“ My deepest sympathy on your loss. Calvin was a bright light at Acme. He always had a smile on his face, never complained and always was there for you when you needed anything. He was such a hard worker and a pleasure to work with everyday. I will miss our talks about golf. He truly loved the game. I will miss seeing him working down the aisles. He was a good person. He will truly be missed.
