“ I would like to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. May God almighty father of tender mercies and all comfort continue to comfort you all (2 Corinthians 1: 3, 4). Please know that God has promised to completely remove death, tears, mourning, outcry and pain (Revelation 21:4). Indeed we all eagerly anticipate the fulfillment of these promise. The Bible also provides assurance of a real hope of reuniting with our dead loved ones in the coming new world (John 5: 28, 29). At a time like this the Bible is a true source of comfort and you can read it online and also learn further about God's purposes at www.jw.org

“ Mrs. Francavilla, even though my memories of being at your home were so long ago, whether we were having tea at your counter or your husband was telling his jokes, (could never finish a meal without choking), those memories never fade. I pray you find comfort in your children and grandchildren and may Carlos's spirit bring you peace. Love, Betty Ann

“ *To Donnamarie and family:
I am sorry to hear of your father's passing. Please know that he is remembered fondly by so many ...May that bring you a kind of piece of mind; that he made such an impression on many others he knew. I will be grateful too, for his rescue effort for my own father Rudy so many years ago (1990). He made many of his friends laugh always! Now I'm sure they are both in heaven ...*
Sincerely,

“ It is with great regret that I learned of the passing of my wonderful uncle Carlo Frankavilla. He was a funny man with a great sense of humor. I always loved his laugh his voice and his smile. It was always nice to be in his company. He always made sure everyone was happy and had enough food. He often brought food and treats to our family gatherings sometimes trying to convince us to try his deer meat. Unfortunately due to my own illness I will not be able to attend his service. My deep condolences to my great Aunt Kay, cousins Donna, Frank and Carla and families. I am sure he will be remembered and missed by many. I know his great spirit will always shine on! Much love Lorraine

“ The Francavilla Families
I was planning on coming to the funeral home today to pay my respects to the family, but due to the inclement weather I cannot do so. I had met Carlo and Mrs. Francavilla in Shoprite many times and always stopped to talk with you. Carlo and I worked together at Selective for many years. He was really a funny person and always stopped to talk with all his co-workers pleasantly. My sincere condolences. He will be missed by everyone who knew him.
