“ I met my grandmother only a few times. I have one letter from her. I just found this obituary while looking for her daughter Ruth’s obituary. Ruth Lopez was her daughter, and my mother.

“ I lived on the Corner of Walnut and Grove street as I was growing up, I will never forget Mrs. Jaquinto walking down to the A&P almost daily. She would always be singing to herself as she would walk to the store and back. Being a mother now, I can fully see how much of a devoted mother she was. She did so to get fresh food to make for her family. TY for the many other memories Mrs. Jaquinto.
