“ Our family met Carolyn when my dad was a resident of the nursing home in the late 1990's. Long term care can be very disconcerting, but Carolyn was the ray of sunshine during my mother's daily visits. Carolyn was always cheerful and brought her smile, charm and laughter into the room. We always appreciated that she took a few moments to pop into the room and brighten the day. Carolyn was a very special lady and I am saddened to hear of her passing. My deepest sympathy to Carolyn's entire family.

“ So sorry for the family's loss of Carolyn. I remember her being the sweetest woman I knew when I lived on Harrison street. In fact, I had at that time wished she was my mom. During one particular rough day, she bought me icecream from the truck and told me it all would end up ok. Still remember that kindness fondly. May she rest in peace. 🙏❤️ Dawn Charity Ranzan

“ So many of my teenage years were spent at the Conklin home. Ma(Carolyn) had a great sense of humor. Many laughs were shared. She always had a smile on her face. As an adult I worked with her at the nursing home. Recently I had the opportunity to talk to her she was still the feisty lady o remembered from so many years ago. We will meet on the other side❤️❤️
