“ My father in law Charlie was a wonderful man who loved his family deeply. He was a man of few words but as I learned over the years he was always there to lend a helping hand. He was most proud of his military service and loved his country. He welcomed me to the family and he and Masae always made time to visit their grandchildren who they were very proud of. In his later years he enjoyed visits from his great grandchildren and in weekly phone calls hearing about their activities. He was an animal lover and indulged his grandchildren in whatever pets they were interested in at the time. Birds, fish, hamsters, and finally their first dog. Those are some of my fondest memories of him. He felt such joy in seeing his family happy. We will all miss him but I will treasure the memories I have and only hope he knew how much he was loved.
