“ Christine and I were childhood friends in Elementary and Middle School, and have lost touch since High School. I can still picture her as "Cinderella", with the sparkle in her eyes, and caring heart that made it seem like she always had bluebirds around her. I am so sorry for your losses, and send the Fluhr and Parry families my deepest sympathies. Rest in Peace Christine.

“Christine and I got to know each other in our 20s. We always had great times together. Although we'd drifted apart like so many friends do, it was precious to reconnect with her at John's wake and share a tender laugh or two. She had a heart of gold and loved her family and friends like nobody's business. She has earned her rest. God speed.
