“ Sorry to hear about Daryl. I worked with him in Franklin Shop Rite until the sale. He was always joyous and friendly. I took over Mrs.Earnst’s lawn for him. He talked fondly of his family and the hardship when the trailer burned. I will miss him.

“ I have fond memories of spending time with Daryl and his sister Becky when we were kids. I always loved visiting at Uncle Lew's. I'm sorry we lost touch with each other so long ago. Know that my thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends at this time. Love to all, Patty (Martin) Burke
