“ How much I enjoyed this guy’s friendship and how much he loved his family. He was so kind and funny to everyone around and he always loved and talked about his family so much. I Thank him for being a great friend to me in this difficult world. I hope he is happy and at peace with himself. My condolences to his soulmate Alexa and there kids, family. He always talked about his love for her, he loved her so much and wanted to sincerely grow old with her and do right for their family. I knew Dave he always put smiles on anyone around him his personality was larger than life and definitely too big for this world. Rest easy my friend, brother. Be with allah in paradise.

“ The best memory I will ever have of my brother is his spirit. His smile would light up any dark day, his laugh was contagious and you would just laugh cause he was. He always has a story to tell, he was always dancing and singing. Although things weren’t always sunshine and roses my brother was one of a kind. And to say I will Miss him is an understatement. David I love you and I will love you until the day I take my last breath. R.i.p brother
