“ Rob Solga
I always idolized my Uncle and God Father as a child, I remember seeing pictures of him when he played in a band and thought he looked like one of the Beatles, it was the seventies after all.
And the same later in life I admired my Uncle Denise for all his hard work and what he had achieved and become. a loving husband and father.
I wish I could have spent more time and know him better.
As I think we all do.
I had herd this Irish Poem and ths part stood out epecially today
Although he was loved dearly, we could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best
Love Rob
