“ I Know I posted one already, but there were some things I forgot. Let's not forget about his wife Jen, and his other children who found him. Jen is doing an excellent job of keeping everything together for their family. A lot of people think when someone dies, that's it. But there is so much other shit that needs to be done. Things that you can't ignore and unfortunately with Chuck's passing, he left a big mess for His wife to clean up. And honestly she is doing everything she can to clean it up and she's been so busy she hasn't even had time to grieve. So to you Jen, I give you a lot of credit because I couldn't do it. And to Gabby, Bree, Chuckie, Emily, & Jack I hope you have nothing but great memories of your dad and just know that your dad and mom loved each other very much, and loved all of you just as much!

“ Chuck I can't believe you are gone! I just talked to you last week, and we had made plans to get together. You seriously were a great friend! And the fact that you would always tell me I was your best friend, you listened when I was upset, happy, confused, struggling, you were ALWAYS there for me. No matter what time it was. Usually around 3am when I would have an anxiety attack I would call you and you would talk me back to reality. You genuinely made me feel like the greatest person inside and out. I promise I will keep in touch with your mom and Chuckie, and make sure he grows up knowing how amazing you really were!! And make sure your mom knows how much she meant to you. You not only were an excellent person, friend, father, son, husband etc. my world and so many others are crushed, but I know you would want us to be happy and be ok! We will be, and you never will be forgotten because you will live in each of our hearts! I love you so much, and miss you already! I will just keep in my head how every time we were hanging up I would say I love you and you always asked me why every time why I would say it. Well I'm glad I said it last gin we talked and I'm glad you started saying it back! Let your bright light shine and watch over us! 😭

“ Chuck, I was blessed to be your pastor, your friend and even your boss. You were a kind, smart and thoughtful young man. I will always remember you fondly. And I trust you are singing (and maybe even dancing!) with that heavenly choir of angels in God's eternal home. Blessings to your family.

“ Dear Tammy, I'm in total shock!!! What a great young man and a good student!!! He will remain in my thoughts and prayers and his name will be inserted in 'pray for the deceased" in St. Monica's prayer book. God Bless You and may he lead you to the eventual healings of Chuck's passing! Love Mr. McLean

“ Good ol' Chuck! It is with a heavy heart I come here. We learned a lot from each other during our Kaplan ACM days. I am very appreciative I was given a chance to meet him in person. We had a great time, and the memories are still being shared around my family.

Thank you Chuck for being a mentor and friend.

“ I had the pleasure, of being Chuck's bus driver in his earlier school years. His sister Tammy and he, we're my best behaved and mannerly students. It is with a heavy heart, I express my THOUGHTS and PRAYERS to his family. Heaven has gained another Special Angel.💙 MaryEllen (Little ) Grau.

“ I'm sorry doesn't begin to express my feelings for the surviving family members. You've lost a husband, dad, friend, son, brother, nephew, uncle.
They say time heals all wounds. I say it is not time that heals all wounds; it's LOVE that heals. I pray God heals your broken hearts.
Much love, Always, Suzie
