“ Dear Uncle Mike,

When Kevin first met Aunt Donna, she grabbed him, gave him a big hug and said, “In our family, we give hugs, not handshakes!” Betty and I knew right away she had a big heart, made us feel as if we’d known her for years and we are truly blessed to have had the opportunity to spend time together. We are all saddened by her untimely passing and hope you and Thomas can find comfort knowing we will remember our time together. She will forever be in our thoughts and prayers. With all our love, Bob, Betty and Kevin Rice

“ Dear Michael & Thomas,

We are very saddened by Donna's passing. It seems hard to believe she is gone. Her suffering is over now and she is at peace. Donna was a good wife, loving mother and a warm and friendly sister-in-law.

As sick as she was, Donna traveled with you a thousand miles to Florida to be here for my birthday. She truly was thoughtful and caring.

We hope that your love and precious memories will comfort you in your time of sorrow.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

*Love,
Carol & Bob*
