Vernon - Eileen DeFabiis, age 65, lovingly known as “Aunt Eileen,” peacefully passed away on Saturday, January 6, 2024 with her family by her side after her three year battle against cancer. Born in Teaneck to the late James Moran and Rosemary (Heller) Moran, Eileen grew up in Dumont before moving to Vernon. She will be remembered for her gentle voice, warm embracing heart, and magical laugh. Eileen retired in June 2023 from the Township of Montague as the town clerk, where she served for many years. She was a member of the New Jersey Municipal Clerk’s Association and the Sussex County Municipal Clerk’s Association. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by her brother, Michael Moran. Her memory will live on through her loving husband, Danny; her son, Michael; her step-son, Daniel DeFabiis, II of Old Tappan; her brothers, James Moran and his wife Donna of Warwick, New York, and Timothy Moran and his wife Sue of West Milford; and all those who knew and loved her. The family is grateful for the beautiful memories of their family celebrations, Fourth of July pool parties, late night dancing, and Christmas Eve celebrations. She will be fondly remembered with a guitar in her hand or a piano at her fingertips. She was an unwavering source of joy and love that will be so truly missed.
