Born in St. Louis, Missouri to the late William and Ruth (Vierling) Fellers, Beth Ann grew up in Detroit, Michigan and attended business college in Detroit. She moved to Northern Virginia, living in Alexandria and then resided in Southern California and Washington D.C. After her husband retired from federal law enforcement, she made her home in Sussex County in 1994. Beth Ann spent many years working in retail distribution and sales, where her dedication, strong work ethic, and natural ability to connect with people earned her the respect and friendship of many colleagues and customers alike throughout the years. No matter where she worked, she brought kindness, laughter, and a welcoming presence. A true people person, Beth Ann loved opening her home to family and friends. Her family holidays were always hosted with good food, gifts, and her sense of humor. Her house parties were filled with conversation, music, laughter, and the feeling that everyone belonged. She had a special way of making people feel comfortable and valued, and her social nature created countless lifelong friendships. Whether crafting something elegant or practical, her work reflected both her artistic eye and the love she poured into everything she did. Beth Ann had a deep love for life, for people, and for the simple joys that made each day meaningful. She especially adored her cherished Chihuahua dogs, Teddy Bear and Sweet Pea, who brought her endless companionship and happiness. Her faith was an important part of her life. She was a devoted and active member of First Presbyterian Church of Sussex and participated faithfully in the Presbyterian Women's Group, where she found fellowship, purpose, and lasting friendships through service and community. Above all, Beth Ann will be remembered for her generous heart, vibrant personality, creativity, and the love she shared so freely with others.
