Louis & I will miss Elizabeth very much. She sang at our wedding. Elizabeth doesn't want any of us to mourn her death, instead she wants us to celebrate her life. Elizabeth was a woman with a living heart, caring, living and always there for whoever needed her support or prayers or just to talk to. Elizabeth is in Heaven singing praises in heaven's choir (no wait) Elizabeth is at the pearly gates with Jesus welcoming people into heaven. Fr. Rude & family, do not mourn her death, celebrate her life, its what she would want all of you to do. She's at peace.

“ First let me say, My condolences to Father Rude and family. When I first met Elizabeth, we connected right away. She had this warmth about her from the words she spoke to the hugs she shared. I will always remember your smile and kind words. Especially, the earrings you gave me at Convention, this past January and the beautiful beaded necklace, just because it was my favorite color.

Love,

Giordanna L-Hamilton
