

Ethel J. Stanton

December 26, 2009

Sussex - Ethel J. Stanton, age 82, passed away on Saturday, December 26, 2009 at Newton Memorial Hospital. Born in Hamburg to the late Conrad and Ethel Lockburner, Mrs. Stanton had lived in Sussex all of her life. She had been employed as the tax collector and water and sewer collector in Sussex Borough for many years and had retired from Eckerd Drug Store in Wantage after working part-time there for fourteen years. She was a 50 + year member of the Sussex United Methodist Church, where she taught Sunday School, participated in the choir, and chaired the turkey dinner. Mrs. Stanton was predeceased by her husband, Herbert R. in 1984. She is survived by her nieces and nephews. Private cremation services were held under the direction of the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex and burial services will be held in the spring at Branchville Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations may be made to the Sussex United Methodist Church, 15 Bank Street, Sussex, NJ 07461 or to Karen Ann Quinlan Center of Hope Hospice, 99 Sparta Avenue, Newton, NJ 07860. Online condolences may be offered to the family at www.PinkelFuneralHome.net

Tribute Wall

DR

“ To the Family of Ethel,
So very sorry to hear the news about a former patient of mine. She was a special lady, always bringing a smile to me when she had an appt. Her humor and her laugh always brought joy into the office and I am sure she will be missed by many. She was a delight!

Donna Braun, R.N. - May 14, 2015 at 08:20 AM

VF

“ You were the BEST neighbor, more like a much loved family member. We had so many good times together with the girls, baking, your cakes and cookies-and just spending time together...we'll miss you. Rest in peace..you are back with Herby. Love, Judy, Vince, Stefanie, and Erica ventrone family - May 14, 2015 at 08:20 AM