“ Oh Flossy, you will be missed. Lifelong memories of you and the love in your heart for your family and 'chosen family'. I want to love everyone as deeply as you did! You never forgot a birthday and we always said 'There's Flossy' when the phone rang on a birthday. I'm glad you chose my parents to be a part of your world.
Ted, Teddy (bear) and Mike, I'm sorry the miles kept me from seeing you but please know the miles can't keep you from my heart. Peace be with you. ~Jesslyn.

“ Dear Ted, Teddy Bear and Mike. 60+ Year's of friendship and can not express how sad we are. I hear Flossy singing now. "Your Cheating Heart" Out of tune and loving every minute she was doing it. Canning tomatoes and cleaning house. Watching my kids and being there when I needed help. And dancing and doing the grind. A fun person who was misunderstood by many. She loved and missed seeing her family and her babies. May she Rest In Peace and sing to our Lord.

“ Ted, Ted and Mike,

We are so sorry that Flossy has left us. I know Johnny and Frank and I will miss her deeply. I personally will miss her jokes and her "I love you always" attitude. She was the best. I just saw her a few weeks ago at the firehouse for a fish and chips dinner and the jokes were continuous. I know she wants to come back as a stamp... And I also know why!!

We love you Florence. You will be deeply missed.

Love,

Julie, John and Frank VanLuvender (Just a few of your many "other" children)

“Dear Teddy, Ted, Mike and family; I am so sorry and sad that my 'buddy', 'Flo' has passed away. I will cherish the fond and fun memories of our kidding around and joking together. I will never forget all of the dinners and other Community Fire Company functions that my buddy Flo would make me turn beet red with her humor and 'off-color' jokes and comments. May God Bless You dear Florence. May you rest in peace. One-of-a-kind!!! Love to all of the Smith Family. From, Steve Ward
