“ Lois, it has been a long time since we went to school together, but always good to keep up with fellow Sussex High Schoolers. I am so sorry to hear about your husband. I was in the first aid squad with Floyd Jr. Life is not always fair, but your husband had a family who loved him and I'm sure misses him dearly. My prayers are with you through this very hard time. I can't make it home for the services, but my heart is there with you.
