“ Gary and I were childhood friends. We were born in the same hospitals. Our moms became quick best friends. Gary had two older brothers, and I was mom’s first baby. We grew up in a great neighborhood with a ton of kids and were always into something. He will be missed.

I've known Gary for many years, first meeting him at a job site with a mutual friend. Through the years after and most recently we worked together on various renovation jobs. Both of us being professionals we each had our way of doing things which resulted in a lot bickering. Customers thought it was very amusing but we were friends and all that was forgotten when we put our hammers down. He was a great help to me as a skilled carpenter and always available when asked. In recent years I introduced him to ocean fishing and the companionship of my fishing crew. He loved catching those big stripers. We always had a good time. I'm sorry he had to leave and I will miss him

Garry I hope your transition was a peaceful one. So glad you and Tina met. Our travels took us to Myrtle Beach for many years and to the Bahamas this past June. So many happy memories to remember you by. RIP my friend. 🙏
