“ This morning , I was doing my devotions and had a really great memory of nineteen seventy eight and a woman's prayer group that was in my kitchen in the frankfurt plains united methodist church parsonage. We did a web study called "what happens when women pray"... I was twenty one years old and scared to death of being the pastor's wife with a brand new baby and jerry and several other women lifted me up and took me under their wing and helped me get through that rough patch.
We prayed together , and there's certainly was power in those prayers , which carried me through years and years , and years. And so today , I am sixty nine years old and had such a vivid memory of that powerful time in my life that I looked up , Gerry's name and that she had passed. Her family was blessed , and so was I.
