“Time is not measured in the years that you live, but by the deeds that you do & the joy that you give.” Your father gave us all so much joy....a friend wrote this to me when I was 15 and my father had just passed suddenly. Those words have given me much comfort over the years. Hoping you find comfort during this terribly difficult time.

“ Dear Dustin and family,

Just learned of the passing of your dad. He was such a nice guy and he certainly loved you boys. Keep the wonderful memories of him with you as they will help time heal your heart. Stay strong and if you ever need to talk, I'm here. May God hold him and may he rest in peace.

“ I have known Glenn for many years and am very saddened at his passing. We had talked about the costs of running pond and waterfall pumps, and shared conversations while getting morning coffee. Mornings will not be the same. I pray for his family, as they find a way through this loss.
