“ Harold was a good and decent man. I worked with him many years ago at Ames Rubber Corp. I am sorry I did not see this sooner as I would have attended his services. I posed for him once for a portrait he was painting for a showing.

“ My best memories as a youngster back in the 70's was when He and Edith came up to visit from NJ and I would ask him if He would draw me a truck or car and he always did no matter what. As time went on and we had children then Grandchildren there was always interesting things involved with that. In resent rears we enjoyed getting together for conversation and a couple of beers. Was very happy they came to NH only a couple months ago and had quality time together. He met a couple of my friends and they liked him right away. I am going to miss him tremendously. He was a smart caring fun guy that enjoyed the simple things in life. Love you Harold, rest in Pease my dear Brother in law.
