I absolutely loved Herman, he was such a kind, loving, funny man and he worked so hard, he was always a people person and he sure helped me when my husband died, he probably didn't even know the impact his friendship had on me, you'll be forever missed. I loved you more Herman....

My condolences to Herman's family. I remember him as a very friendly and hard-working man when I visited my grandparents, and he was working frequently with my Uncle Don during the mowing season.
