

Ida Casselli

April 14, 1918 - April 26, 2021

Vernon- Ida Casselli, age 103, passed away on Monday, April 26, 2021 at Barn Hill Care Center in Newton. Born in West New York on April 14, 1918 to the late Vincenzo and Adele (Paragon) Ventura, Mrs. Casselli lived in Ridgefield Park before moving to Vernon Township. She had been a self-employed hairdresser, owning and operating Colonade Hair Salon in Maywood. She enjoyed her profession and she continued to work well into her 80's as a manicurist before her retirement. Mrs. Casselli was predeceased by her husband, Rocco in 1979 and her brothers and sisters. She is survived by her son, Dennis Casselli and his wife Mary of Vernon; her grandchildren, David Casselli and his wife Maureen of Highland Lakes, Christen Casselli of Franklin, and Kristine Smith and her husband Todd of Vernon; her great grandchildren, Skye, Brooke, Jackson, Harrison, and Adelyn; and many nieces and nephews. Inurnment services will be held at 11 a.m. on Monday, May 10, 2021 at George Washington Memorial Park, 234 Paramus Road, Paramus. Private cremation services have been entrusted to the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. Online condolences may be offered to the family at www.pinkelfuneralhome.com

Cemetery Details

George Washington Memorial Park

Paramus, NJ

Previous Events

Inurnment

MAY 10. 11:00 AM.

George Washington Memorial Park
Paramus, NJ

Tribute Wall

“ oh Aunt Ida I will see you again aps in the arms of Jesus ..your life is one that stands out to anyone who had hardship hit them and then make a victorious stand from it. you may not have known it but because you were so kind and strong hearted it gave me hope and perhaps others as well saw that too. I often prayed and thought of you and love you very much
Stephanie

Stephanie Venturo - September 27, 2021 at 07:12 PM

“ Farewell dear Ida, from your neighbor of 14 years, Chris Wilson. My condolences to Dennis and family.....Chris christopher a wilson - June 03, 2021 at 02:30 PM