“ Jimmy you were one of a kind! So bright, creative, quick-witted, and introspective. You were an artist through and through, and I loved having you in my art class. I can still see that little twisted smile of yours :) I know some of your days were dark, but you spread so much light to those around you during your short time on Earth. You will be, and are already, so missed.

“ Sam, so sorry to hear about the passing of James. I have good memories of him with our conversations at quick check and him asking me for advice. He was a good man just trying to do the right thing in this world we now live in. He is smiling down on you and he is now your angel. Prayers to you and your family
