“ So saddened to hear about Jamie...Have thought so much about her and our friendship/times together since I joined FB in 2005 and reconnected with so many , but I never found Jamie...
Middle school and freshman year before I moved countless memories together... Incredibly beautiful smile, laughter, and friend
❤️❤�
Countless sleepovers and time spent with mom, dad, Paul and Jan...
Rest In Peace my dear beautiful, loving childhood friend 🙏🌈❤�

“ My beautiful friend Jamie. The sister I never had. Words cannot describe the amount of grief and loss I have. My heart is broken 💔 😭. You had the biggest and purest heart I have ever known. I will never forget you and all that you've done for me and how much you loved me & I loved you right back with all of my 💖 I can't even function knowing I will never see your beautiful face and your little voice calling me just about every day to check on me and telling me how much you loved me like a sister and I would be ok and you died 😭 the pain is unbareable!!! The only thing that gives me any peace is knowing no- one will ever hurt you or make fun of you ever again. They never did on my watch! Rest in peace my dear friend, I will love you forever. 💖🙏💖🌻

OK

Even though we haven't seen each other in years I have picture perfect memories of you. Your cute little smile , pigging out on pita and butter sandwiches after school at my house, stealing my mom car and visiting friends. We had a lot of laughs together . Your were a beautiful person inside and out. May you rest in pease my friend .

Jamie Hartman, Jamie Hartman

*Your twinkling eyes, Stevie Nicks smile
We were the best of friends
Always together, or only a long phone cord away
Wrapping ourselves round and round
Scheming through the night, our many adventures
You were my youth, my identity, my everything
My NYC partner, crossing bridges after midnight
Dancing with wild abandon, laughing till dawn*

*I remember you, your essence
As a night bird, obscured by darkness,
Fades into night
Our 1980s, bigger and better than life itself, FUN!
Memories play hide-and-seek on sandy beaches,
Get lost along winding pathways of time
In a landslide of colors, life, heartache, and pain
I miss you and always will*
