“ I worked with Jeff over the last few months as one of his vendors. I work with a lot of Dairy Managers at ShopRites all over NJ and he was my favorite. My name is also Geoff. We bonded and I loved his laugh, sense of humor and zest. He always took good care of me and my product and he made my job a lot easier than most. An extremely hard worker and a colorful man. He will be missed. Praying for all of his family.

“ My deepest sympathy to all of the family I am a distant (Dowdy) cousin, connected through his grandmother, Rebecca D.Frederick, who was sister to my grandmother, Mary V. Ginn. I met the family when my parents visited Esther & Danny in the late '70's. The deep love in your family was apparent then. I am so sorry to hear of Jeff's untimely death. May God be your comfort. Love, Linda Woodard (Chapel Hill, NC)

Over the years there were many ups and many downs But somehow managed to move forward,Our children are the epitomy of our Union andI thank you for being their unconditionally loving father!You we're SO very proud of Kristen our first prescious gift and God took her back 6 yrs ago,I know your heart broke in a million pieces as mine did and still does,I know she was your best friend and you longed for her as I did,You couldn't of been any prouder of our 2nd born Jeffrey,as I gleem daily for this handsome intellent child,now a man that continue s to make us proud and our 3rd child JESSICA,A heart of Gold and could do no wrong in your eyes,A child you couldn't turn away because her heart embrased us all,A rebel at heart like her mom and that's why she had such a place in your heart for her because she has me in her,kinda scary!! I know you loved me so and we disagreed on discipline,especially our rebellious Beautiful child,I was ready to take away everything except the air she breathe and you wouldn't have it,You we're the good Daddy and our children adored you so!! I gave you much stress and I wish I could have let you free!You are at peace now!We love you forever and you truly we're the epitemy of a role model,many times not seeing my views But Always the children's!RipXoX

“ Another example of Jeff's love and connection to all children. He adored his own children and provided them with his unconditional love and attention. He never overlooked the kids and gravitated to them. Makayla & he often shared matching outfits.

“ Jeff, missing you so much already, but understanding that when God picks you for His Team, you may have to go sooner than expected. Cherishing all the great memories we shared as brothers, and always admiring the good man to all who knew you, and the most wonderful father to Kristen, Jeffrey and Jessie..I know that you are so happy to be reunited with Kristen, your heart was broken these past 6 years. I know you will always be watching over us, with that great big smile, and keeping your family safe. I feel really PROUD right now to be "Jeff's brother".
Forever in my Heart,
Love, Tony

Jeff,

My Brother, My Friend, I will miss you forever . . . the calls across the time zones, the hugs when we were together . . . so sincere. You will always be a light in my life, for the wisdom you shared . . . for so many things I learned from you by your example. Never boastful, always true in your words and most importantly, in your deeds. You are a part of me, I will carry the Love I have for you, forever. Thank you for always being there Jeff.

Love, Danny

“ Jeff was always there when it was time to celebrate or commemorate events. Not only when it was local or convenient for him but wherever he was invited. He and Vicky flew to California for Barb's wedding without batting an eyelash. He was part of welcoming our little Wesley when they were here in July of this year. And he always showed up with a big smile and lots of bear hugs to spread around. No matter how tired he was or whatever conflicts arose he always made it his priority to show up. He spoke with everyone, somehow not bearing any grudges.....don't know how he managed to love us and reach out to us no matter what. Forever in our hearts.
