“ My sincere sympathy on the passing of your mother. She was a grade school friend. Her family lived about 1/2 mile from my house. After school, we would walk together up Stanhope Hill, popping the tar bubbles in the road. When their dachshund had puppies we would play with them. We saw each other frequently, except when she had scarlet fever and her house was quarantined. That was scary for me, to think that my friend had a serious illness. Lynn Cook

“ *Jamie and Jared,
You mother and father were remarkable people!! Ron and I watched how they grew and prospered together. They adored you children. After you father passed, your mom got even stronger! There was nothing she wouldn't try; mowing, cutting down trees, building the roof over the hot tub and repairing the fridge when she could have been electrocuted. She showed me courage and strength. I will miss her so much! Someday I'll tell you they story about us getting together again but my respect for her never wained.
