“ Jo was my dearest buddy. We called ourselves the ' Dynamic Duo ' and usually spent our time together in raucous laughter. There will never be another with whom I will share that bond. One day, after church (it was Easter) we had coffee and cleanup duty together and when we were cleaning a tall coffee-maker, it got caught under the faucet and the whole large faucet came off the sink. We, of course collapsed in laughter as Jo was left with the faucet in her hand. I treasure the photo!

What can I say about her wonderful family? I remember my toddler daughter calling "Baydid" (David) to get him down from his room. I remember being at the hospital when Kelly Jo gave birth to little "Lorna Doon" and all the showers and baptisms. I remember Jo agonizing over the long absences of Greg in Nevada. I remember feasting on her great cooking. I remember teaching Barbara Ann and Barbara Jean at Pompton Lakes High School and greeting Russell, Nancy and Abby here in West Milford.

Love you, Judy
