“ Dearest Angela, Christa and John Jr.,
Your father was a very special person. Although quiet on the surface he was a very funny and kind man. I remember his visits to your mother's classroom to help pack up. He would simply go about the work that Angela had assigned him with a smile on his face and I'm sure a song in his heart! He will be missed!

“ John was a great guy and a gentle man with a wry sense of humor.
Wish there were more like him around.

Condolences to Angela and all the family from the Lavery's.
