

Joseph Aglialoro

August 26, 2011

Sussex - Joseph Aglialoro, age 82, passed away on Friday, August 26, 2011 at his residence. Born and raised in Manhattan, Mr. Aglialoro had lived there until moving to Sussex County in 1965. He had served in the United States Air Force during World War II. Mr. Aglialoro had been a self-employed window glazer, owning and operating AGRIC Window Glazing Company in Manhattan and had retired at age 65. He was a member of St. Monica R.C. Church in Sussex, the American Legion Post 213 in Sussex, and the Window Glazers Local Union in Manhattan. He enjoyed country western music, baseball, sports, John Wayne, mowing, grapes and wine making, hunting, and spending time with his close friend, Charles Gould, Sr., Robert Paggett, his best friend in Florida, Al Bellis and Bruce Brown. He especially loved the time he spent in Ratti's Coffee Shop doing his scratch offs with Charles. Mr. Aglialoro is survived by his wife of 60 years, Anne; his sister, Johanna Poggi of Randolph; and his close friend that he considered to be like his son, Charles Gould, Sr.. Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday, August 30, 2011 at the Pinkel Funeral Home, 31 Bank Street (Route 23), Sussex. Mass of Christian Burial will follow at St. Monica R.C. Church at 10 a.m.. Interment St. Raymond's Cemetery in The Bronx. Friends may pay their respects to the family on Monday, August 29, 2011 from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations may be made to the funeral home in Joseph's memory.
