

Justin Wayne Sadowski

May 24, 1976 - June 10, 2025

Wantage - Justin Wayne Sadowski, age 49, passed away suddenly on Tuesday, June 10, 2025. Born in Port Jervis, New York, to Jake and Rhonda (Jaeger) Sadowski, Justin grew up in Wantage, New Jersey. He was a 1994 graduate of High Point Regional High School and later earned a degree in Computer Programming and Web Design from the Chubb Institute. Justin spent many years working as a dedicated and talented data analyst.

Above all, Justin was a devoted and loving father to his two children, Mason and Hailee, who were the absolute center of his world. Whether he was chaperoning school trips, cheering from the sidelines at Mason's soccer games, or beaming with pride at Hailee's cheer competitions, Justin was always there. He cherished summer days swimming at his sister's pool, loved teaching Mason how to drive, and never missed a father/daughter dance with Hailee. His unwavering support and involvement in their lives was evident to all who knew him.

Justin had many passions. He loved riding motorcycles with his mom and dad, driving dune buggies, catching Miners games, and dining out. He was also a loyal supporter at his nephews' football games and track meets, never missing a chance to cheer them on. Known for his loud, jovial spirit and infectious sense of humor, Justin had a gift for making people laugh. His goofy faces, hilarious text messages, and ability to find humor in any situation left a lasting impression on everyone he met.

In addition to his parents and children, Justin is survived by his sister, Shannon Martress and her husband Jerry, along with their sons, Peyton, Cade, and Jerron; his sister, Lindsay Bauernfeind and her husband James, their son, Matthew, and daughter, Ashley. He was deeply loved by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Justin's presence filled every room he entered, and his love for his family and laughter will be missed beyond words.

“ I've never met Justin, but I have known his sister Lindsay for over 20 years. He had to be a Great guy if he was anything like Lindsay. As he was taken too soon, I know Lindsay and her family will really miss him. I am so sorry for your loss. Try and find comfort in knowing what a fine person he was and all the happy memories you have of him.
