

Kathleen A. Comfort

March 25, 1960 - March 21, 2022

Wantage - Kathleen Comfort (nee Fillion), age 61, entered eternal peace on Monday, March 21, 2022 at Hackettstown Medical Center. Born in Middletown, Connecticut to the late Richard and Joan (Parfait) Fillion, Kathy lived in the Middletown, Connecticut area before moving to Sussex County in 2001. She had been employed as a commercial artist by The Herald Press newspaper located in Middletown, Connecticut before her retirement. Kathy was a member of Saint Monica's R.C. Church in Sussex and had a great passion for art. She will live on through the beautiful paintings and drawings she created for those she loved and the countless memories we all shared of her. Kathy was the cherished wife of Glenn Comfort for more than 30 years; a beloved mother to Amber McBride and her husband Sean McBride of Hampton; adored sister to Debra Hale (nee Fillion) and her husband Thomas of Connecticut and Rick Fillion and his wife Maria (nee Oliveria) of Vermont; and dear sister-in-law to Patricia Congalton (nee Comfort) and her husband Bob of Ridgefield. "Aunt Kathy" was also loved by her nieces and nephews; Joanna and her husband Scott, Bobby and his wife Zuzanna, Gabrielle and her husband Max, Matt and his wife Ashley, Chris, Rebecca, and TJ. She was also a playful great aunt to eight great nieces and nephews. Anyone who knew her also knew how much she loved being a cat-mom to Shadow and Jake.
