“ I went to high school and also worked with Kathy in our senior year at Selective Insurance in the cafeteria. I just learned this morning about her passing. So heartbreaking. We lost contact for a long while and was able to find each other a while back on facebook. We were planning on meeting up the next time I traveled to NJ. My thoughts and prayers are with her family in this time of sorrow. May she rest at ease. ”

“ I could post an entire novel about you. Your sarcastic ways. The laughs the jokes teaching my son how to "gibs" someone. The memories will always remain. You either lite up the room when u walked in or completely made everyone remain silent. You will forever be missed and never be forgotten. Rest in the sweetest of peace in the arms of the angels. (I'd say god but you'd slap me up side the head if u were standing next to me) Till we meet again and we will one day. Love ya always the neice that you didn't always like (cause we were too much alike) 🙏🏻🙏🏻 heather
