“ I remember our days of creating imaginary adventures, putting on made-up skits, and that perpetual laugh of friends, even after all these years. It's likely been two decades since we saw each other, but Kelly left a mark of happiness and warmth on my life, even after all this time, as I'm sure she did for all those she met. Kelly, I'm so sad that your joy and life and creativity were cut short, but know that your friends will remember you. And to her family, I'm so sorry for the loss of Kelly and her light to all those she leaves behind.
